College Graduate /Literacy & Physical Education Teacher (Bronx)

About Us

At Academic Leadership Charter School, we are committed to developing well-rounded students through academic excellence, strong character, leadership, and a culture of achievement. We believe that literacy education, physical wellness, teamwork, and discipline are essential components of successful education.

We are seeking a motivated and energetic college graduate with a strong interest or background in English education- Literature and Writing: who has been a college athlete able is able to use those skill sets in a physical education program in conjunction with the strong background in Literacy education. This is an exciting opportunity for an individual who enjoys working with students, building positive relationships, and contributing to both their academic and physical development.

Position Overview

The College Graduate / Literacy & Physical Education Teacher will work closely with students and instructional staff to support literacy development, physical education, student engagement, and school-wide enrichment activities.

The ideal candidate values intellectual development is energetic, dependable, and passionate about helping young people succeed. A background as a collegiate athlete, a coach, with a background in English/Literacy education to work with children and adolescents is highly valued.

This position is ideal for a recent college graduate who is considering a career in education, coaching, school leadership, counseling, or youth development.

Key Responsibilities

- Literacy instruction encompassing written communication development.
- Work with students to strengthen reading comprehension, vocabulary, writing, and communication skills.
- Lead physical education activities that promote fitness, coordination, teamwork, and healthy habits and can teach basic yoga skills including strengthening breathing and relaxation skill sets
- Teach all aspects of physical education development including fitness intramural sports, and school-wide athletics initiatives mentoring students physical, intellectual and emotional development developing self discipline and teamwork, perseverance, leadership, and confidence.
- Collaborate with teachers and school leaders to monitor student progress and identify areas where additional academic or behavioral support may be beneficial.
- Participate in school events, athletics, enrichment programs, and extracurricular activities.
- Support the school's mission and contribute to a culture of academic excellence and student achievement.

Qualifications
• Bachelor's degree required with a degree in English Literacy education and the Humanities, a well-rounded college graduate with a strong educational background and a background as a college athlete who participated in varied college sports teams
• Collegiate athletics experience, coaching experience, or a strong athletic background is highly valued.
• Experience working with children or adolescents tutoring, coaching, mentoring, camps, in community based programs preferred
• Strong organizational skills and the ability to manage multiple responsibilities.
• Proficient working in both academic and physical education environments.
• Technology proficient, including Microsoft Office and Google Workspace.
• Positive, energetic, and collaborative approach to working with students and staff.
• Commitment to high expectations, student achievement, and the mission of Academic Leadership Charter School.

The ideal candidate may be a recent college graduate, former collegiate athlete, aspiring teacher, coach, or education professional who wants meaningful hands-on experience working with students.
We are especially interested in candidates who can bring enthusiasm and expertise to both literacy development and physical education/athletics while serving as a positive role model for students.

Benefits
• Starting salary of $72,000+
• Health benefits with the school covering 95%
• Dental benefits
• 401(k) school matches 4% of teacher’s contribution
• Supportive and collaborative school environment
• Professional development and opportunities for career advancement
• Hands-on experience in literacy instruction, physical education, athletics, and student development
• Meaningful opportunity to make a direct impact on students; academic, physical, and personal growth